

WORKPLACE SAFETY & PREVENTION PACKS

Are you prepared for a post-COVID-19 world?

As countries around the world restart their economies, organisations are coping with an uncertain future. One thing that will not change, is the need to ensure ongoing workplace safety and COVID-19 prevention measures. Employers must be proactive, strategic and thoughtful in their approach, in order to create a culture of confidence and safety amidst all this uncertainty and fear.

ENGAGE ME TO THE RESCUE

If organisations want to return to high levels of productivity, they must create psychological and emotional stability in the workplace. Regular communication focused on transparency and safety is key. As the region's leading internal communication specialists, we can help!

OTHER WAYS WE CAN HELP

Many employees will naturally reach out to their managers or supervisors first for guidance during times of crisis. Equip your leaders with the skills they need to be better communicators.

Our communication experts can support by supplying key safety messages, tips, checklists, toolkits and training.

BENEFITS

- ✓ Promote workplace safety
- ✓ Ensure the wellbeing of your employees
- ✓ Provide ongoing and accurate updates
- ✓ Comply with government and WHO guidelines
- ✓ Maintain premise hygiene

Workplace Safety & Prevention Packs

Empower your employees with accurate information designed to promote wellbeing and ensure workplace safety and COVID-19 prevention. Engage Me's communication specialists will help you:

- ✓ Source the latest WHO and government guidelines
- ✓ Write all information in a way that is easy to understand
- ✓ Design eye-catching visuals that stand out
- ✓ Utilise a variety of tactics (e.g. posters, leaflets, infographics, SMS blasts, audio recordings and video)
- ✓ Translate content into multiple languages as needed.

All our packs are customisable and can be tailored for frontline and remote-based employees. Packs will be designed using your corporate branding and logo.
